

LOUISIANA SENDS HER LEGISLATURE AFTER PANAMA FAIR

State Officers and Prominent Business Men Appear Before House Committee.

LOADED DOWN WITH REASONS WHY

Literature, Cigars, and Other Material Arguments Are Handed Out Unsparringly.

Governor Sanders, the entire Legislature, and the lieutenant governor of Louisiana, with Mayor Behrman, of Orleans, and several mayors of other Southern cities, and prominent citizens of that section, invaded Washington today to press the claim of New Orleans for the Panama exposition in 1915.

Every member of the delegation is alive, and is practically bubbling over with enthusiasm. They have had their voices tuned up to shout loud and long while in Washington in the interest of the "Crescent City"—now known as the "Logical Point." In fact, "Logical Point" is their battle cry. They are loaded down with maps, literature, and cigars, and other things to convince everyone here that their slogan is applicable and true.

Appears Before House Committee.
Today the delegation, which is about 200 strong, appeared before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs, to present their claims for the exposition officially and formally. The Committee on Foreign Affairs has a lot to say about the holding of this proposed exposition, and the Southerners are putting forth their most convincing and silvery-tongued speakers to make an impression upon the members of the committee.

One of the arguments being offered is a carefully prepared map about as large as the side of a house, which shows New Orleans in all of its glory near the Gulf, and pointing out "how much better situated geographically, it is than any other city in the United States for the holding of the proposed exposition." The hearing before the committee had not proceeded far before the pockets of every member of the committee were bulging out with New Orleans literature and maps.

State Legislature Here.
The invasion of these Southern visitors is looked upon as an event absolutely unique in the history of the Capitol. An interesting fact in connection with it is that the Louisiana State Legislature adjourned Monday to make the trip. That the enthusiasm is not only confined to Louisiana, but to all of the Gulf States and Mississippi Valley States, is evident from the presence of officers and citizens from Georgia, Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Texas.

The party arrived in Washington in a special train of two sections. They were met at the station by Senator Foster and Representative Broussard of Louisiana; T. P. Thompson, chairman of the executive committee of the World's Exposition Company, of New Orleans, and Col. James L. Wright, assistant secretary of the company.

The delegation was driven immediately to the Willard Hotel, which will be its headquarters during its two days stay, and following a hurried breakfast, proceeded to the Capitol building. They were first received by the Louisiana Congressional delegation and then escorted to the caucus room in the House Office building, where their hearing before the Foreign Affairs Committee was held.

Shortly after 12 o'clock the party made a pilgrimage to Mt. Vernon, the trip being made on the U. S. S. Dolphin.
A large wreath was placed upon the tomb of Washington.

SOLDIER STUDENTS ON HISTORIC SITE

YORKTOWN, Va., May 25.—For the last two days the advance class of the Coast Artillery School at Fort Monroe has been encamped on the banks of the James river. This class, in command of Maj. F. W. Coe, is en route for Richmond, going over the ground followed by General McClellan in the civil war.

Pleasure was given the class at finding in a good state of preservation practically all the forts and intrenchments erected by both the Confederate and Federal armies in and around Yorktown.

FLOODS IN NORWAY.
CHRISTIANIA, Norway, May 25.—The extraordinary spring heat has melted the snow on the mountains, causing a flooding of lakes and rivers far beyond the record of 1890. The situation at several places is critical, especially at Lil-lestrommen, near Skedsmo, where the water reaches to the first floor of buildings.

HEIKE'S SIGNATURE ON REBATE CHECKS

Paper Offered As Proof of Official's Knowledge of Sugar Frauds.

NEW YORK, May 25.—Treasury checks, indorsed by Charles R. Heike, as secretary of the American Sugar Refining Company, representing rebates paid on sugar cargoes imported by the corporation, were introduced as evidence against Heike at today's session of his trial for conspiracy.

By them the Government claimed to prove that Heike must have had knowledge of the sugar frauds and this was the first real attempt to connect him directly with the underweighing of imports.

Acting Deputy Collector of the Port Harry H. Waters produced the checks, all of which bore Heike's indorsement.
He stated that, when a cargo of sugar arrived at this port, the Government estimated the duty by means of the in-voices. After the sugar was weighed on the docks the actual weight, as reported by the weighers, was returned to the collector and compared with the original estimate. Invariably it was found that the trust had been charged too much duty and Treasury warrants for the difference were drawn.

The Government argued that, inasmuch as Heike knew how much was paid for the sugar, payments being made on the return of the city weighers, he also the amount paid for duty, he had knowledge that there was a distinct discrepancy and that the company was benefiting thereby.

Technical statements and reports showing imports covering the time in which the alleged frauds took place were also introduced and explained by Waters.

TRAIN JUMPS TRACK.
PUEBLO, May 25.—Fourteen people were injured when two coaches of Denver and Rio Grande train No. 115 jumped the track two miles from Ca-charas Junction, Col. Spreading rails caused the wreck.

WOMAN KILLS THIEF WITH ROLLING PIN

Burglar Falls Three Stories
After Blow Knocking Him Through Window.

NEW YORK, May 25.—A woman's slow early today killed a burglar.
Awakening to find a man rifling the pockets of her husband's trousers, Mrs.
Joseph Geigerman, of 290 Delancey street, grappled with the intruder. Seizing a rolling pin, she struck him with all her might. He toppled through a window and fell three stories to his death. The man was later identified as Louis Glatch, of 138 Eldridge street.

When she learned that the man was dead as the indirect result of her blow, Mrs. Geigerman was overcome with grief.

"I didn't mean to kill him," she cried.
It is believed that the burglar entered the flat by means of the fire escape, which runs under one window for the full length and extends half way across another. The man in the struggle turned toward the latter window. When the woman hit him, he was within a few inches of it.

"He went down like a flash," said Mrs. Geigerman. His skull was crushed.

CATHOLIC CHURCHES COMMENCE NOVENA

Nine Days' Prayer In Preparation for Feast Begun.

In nearly all of the Catholic churches in the city today a novena was commenced in preparation for the feast of the Sacred Heart, which will be celebrated this year on June 3.

During the novena, or nine days' prayer, special services and prayers will be held and several prominent out of town priests will be in Washington to deliver sermons. At the Shrine of the Sacred Heart the services will be the most elaborate. Services will be held every evening at 7:30 o'clock, and several extra masses will be sung.

The opening discourse will be delivered this evening by the Rev. Father Handley, C. S. P., of the Apostolic Mission House. The Rev. John Harney, C. S.
P., of the College of St. Thomas Aquinas, and the Very Rev. A. P. Doyle, rector of the Mission House, will deliver the sermons on alternate evenings during the remainder of the week.

On Friday evening, June 3, the feast of the Sacred Heart will be celebrated at the closing of the novena. The Rev.
Joseph McGee, pastor of the church, will be assisted by the Rev. Aloysius Brosnan, S. J., of Georgetown University.
